

EUFORES Parliamentary Dinner "Renewables go big! National Renewable Energy Action Plans paving the way towards 2020"

14th October 2009, 19:00-22:00, Members Salon, European Parliament, Brussels

Programme

- Welcome: "The RES Directive and its implementation"
Claude Turmes
MEP, Vice-President EUFORES
- "Views of the Swedish Council Presidency on the implementation of the RES Directive & Success stories on renewables deployment from Sweden"
Anette Persson
Counsellor, Permanent Representation of Sweden to the EU

Entrée

- "The RES Directive and the NREAP Template - how to proceed until June 2010"
Hans van Steen
Head of Unit, DG TREN, European Commission
- "The Renewables Directive: We are ready to deliver!"
Lucie Tesnière
Policy Adviser, EREC

Main course

- Questions and Answers
- Open round: "Other initiatives to support renewables in the EU" input by Claude Turmes and Fiona Hall

Dessert & Coffee

The event is organised within the REPAP2020 project - a project coordinated by EREC - European Renewable Energy Council - and EUFORES. Please see www.repap2020.eu

REPAP2020 is Coordinated by

Supported by

Disclaimer: The sole responsibility for the content of this publication lies with the authors. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of the European Communities. The European Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information contained therein.